

Appendix A: Tally Sheets

Tally Sheet B

Articles Mentioning U.S. Aid to Israel and the Palestinians

11/27/2002 page A13

In Brief: $4 billion in arms aid sought from U.S.

Summary of Information given regarding U.S. aid to Israel:

Israel is asking for $4 billion in new military aid and $8-10 billion in loan guarantees. Exact number was not disclosed.

2/21/2003 page A13

In Brief: Negotiators are closer to making U.S. aid deal

Information given regarding U.S. aid to Israel:

According to an Israeli official, the U.S. and Israel are closer to outlines of deal to be submitted to U.S. leaders on military aid and loan guarantees. "Israel, which gets close to $3 billion a year in mostly military aid has been seeking an extra $4 billion in direct aid and $8 billion in loan guarantees to help it recover from a two-year recession and 28-month-old Palestinian uprising."